FSC First to Win Back-To-Back

FSC 5, San Fernando Valley State 1 at Springfield, Ill.

Mocs became the first school to win back-to-back NCAA national baseball titles ... Cal State-Northridge was known as San Fernando Valley State in 1972 ... for the second straight year, Jay Smith was the winning pitcher in the title game, tossing a complete game, allowing just four hits, with 13 strikeouts after winning the Mocs' opening game in the tournament as well ... that performance (two wins, two complete games, 1.00 ERA) earned him the tournament MVP award.

On April 7, 2001, Moccasin pitcher John Connally Barnett threw the first perfect game in Florida Southern history. The sophomore righthander retired all 27 batters he faced, striking out 17 of them, in a 6-0 win at Florida Tech in Melbourne. At the time, it was just the 12th perfect game in NCAA Division II history (since 1957).

- It was the eighth no-hitter in school history, but just the fifth of nine innings.
- Barnett threw 114 pitches
- He went to a 3-ball count seven times, but came back for six strikeouts
- He struck out Florida Tech's Joe Peterson looking to end the game
- Career-high 17 strikeouts for Barnett, two shy of the FSC record
- Only four balls were hit out of the infield
- Combined with Florida Tech's Jed Withers for 29 strikeouts, second most in NCAA Division II history.

MOCCASIN RETIRED BASEBALL NUMBERS

Many players have excelled at Florida Southern College, many have gone on to play in the professional ranks, and many more have been successful in the business world. Nine Moccasins excelled to such an extent as members of the Florida Southern baseball team that their uniform numbers have been retired in their honor. The eight players with retired numbers are: #7 - Hal Smeltzly; #11 - Joe Arnold; #12 - Chuck Anderson; #17 - Greg Pryor; #20 - Jay Smith; #22 - Andy McGaffigan; #24 - Matt Joyce; #35 - Brett Tomko; and #43 - Ken Huebner.

As the Mocs' head coach from 1959 to 1976, Hal Smeltzly guided the Mocs to a 391-166 record for a .702 winning percentage including three NCAA Division II National Championships (1971, 1972, 1975). From 1972 to 2000, he served as the college's Director of Athletics.

As the Moccasins' head coach from 1977 to 1983, Joe Arnold led Florida Southern College to a 316-69 record for an .821 winning percentage Arnold's Moccasins won Regional titles in six of his seven years and NCAA Division II National Championships in 1978 and 1981.

A two-time MVP for the Mocs in 1961 and '62, Chuck Anderson served as an assistant coach at FSC for 20 years and head coach from 1984 to 2002. He led the program to National Titles in 1985, '88, and '95, won 843 games and ranked second in D-II history with a .770 winning percentage when he retired.

A two-fisted threat as a hitter and an infielder, Greg Pryor had a .333 batting average with 118 RBI and a .504 slugging percentage. In 1970, he led the Mocs with a .415 average with 54 RBI and a .609 slugging percentage. Pryor played 11 seasons in the major leagues.

For three straight seasons, Jay Smith led the Mocs in wins, strikeouts, and innings pitched. For his brilliant career, Smith totaled 43 wins, 471 strikeouts and 413 innings pitched - all school records. Twice, in 1971 and 1972, he led the Mocs in earned run average.

Andy McGaffigan played for the Mocs in 1977 and '78 and posted a career record of 16-2, a 2.79 earned run average, and 177 strikeouts in 174 innings. A 1977 First Team All-American, McGaffigan spent 11 seasons pitching in the major leagues.

Matt Joyce played the outfield for three years and hit .306 for his career with 199 hits, 22 home runs, 145 runs scored, and 121 runs batted in. A 12th round pick of Detroit in 2005, Joyce was named to the 2011 AL All-Star Team as a member of the Tampa Bay Rays. He completed his 14th season in the Major Leagues in 2021.

The 1995 National Player and Pitcher of the Year, Brett Tomko led the Mocs to the NCAA National Title. Tomko tossed 21.1 shutout innings at the national tournament in recording two wins and a save. He was the Cincinnati Reds' top pick in the 1995 draft and won 100 games in the majors.

Three-time Moc MVP Ken Huebner posted an incredible 0.90 ERA in 1964, the second lowest ERA ever for any Moccasin player. As a hitter, Ken led the Mocs three years running in batting average. For his career he was 15-5 with a 1.45 ERA on the mound and a .376 hitter at the plate.

CLARE "DOC" HENLEY BALL PARK (AKA HENLEY FIELD)

The Mocs play their home games at historic Henley Field, a 1,000-seat lighted ball park located a few blocks north of downtown Lakeland. Its cozy atmosphere makes it fun to attend a game, but it is tough on opponents. Combined with nearby Joker Marchant Stadium (which served as the Mocs' home park for several games in past seasons) FSC has a winning percentage at home of almost 80%.

Henley Field's current dimensions are 405 to straightaway center, 325 down the left field line, 330 down the right field line, 365 to left center and 385 to right center.

Florida Southern College purchased the stadium from the City of Lakeland in Sept. 2015 for $1 million and took over the property in Sept. of 2016.

THE HISTORY OF HENLEY FIELD

Named for Clare "Doc" Henley, Henley Field, the home of the Moccasins, has been a Lakeland fixture since the 1920's when it was known as Adair Field.

In 1922, Clare Henley, president of the Lakeland Baseball Club, joined efforts with T.J. Appleyard and approached the Cleveland Indians about moving their Spring Training to Lakeland. In 1923 the Indians set up shop in Lakeland and played here for two seasons.

Henley, owner of a series of Lakeland area pharmacies, would sell tickets at his stores and also charge for parking next to the park.

On March 17, 1925 the dedication of "Athletic Park" took place with Major League Baseball Commissioner Judge Kennesaw Mountain Landis as guest speaker.

With attendance dwindling to just an average of just 110 fans in 1927, the Indians packed their bags and left Lakeland without a professional team

Athletic Field originally was an open field, but in 1927 a wall encircled the 510' by 440' field.

In 1933 Henley joined with the Lakeland Chamber of Commerce and approached the Detroit Tigers about setting up camp at Athletic Field. In 1934, the Tigers began what today is the longest relationship between a major league team and a host spring training city.

The Lakeland Chamber decided to honor Henley by naming the park in his honor and on March 29, 1952, Athletic Field was renamed Clare "Doc" Henley Ball Park.

A writer for the Detroit News said of Henley, "He is the man who has done the most for the national sport of baseball in Lakeland." Furthermore, the writer called Henley, the "Virtual Father of Lakeland Baseball."

During its spring training days Henley Field saw the likes of Babe Ruth and Ty Cobb, as well as Joe DiMaggio and Ted Williams play at Henley, in addition to Hall of Famer Al Kaline, whose grandson, Colin, is a former Moccasin who also served an assistant coach for FSC.

In 1987, Henley Field was the fictional home to the Tampico Stogies semi-professional team in the HBO movie "Long Gone" starring William Peterson and Virginia Madsen. Former FSC athletics director Hal Smeltzly served as baseball advisor during the filming.

HOME OF THE NINE-TIME NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

WHO WAS CLARE HENLEY?

Clare Henley was born in 1888 in Lakeland. After graduating from Lakeland High School, Henley attended Stetson University and later studied at Atlanta College of Pharmacy. While in Atlanta, Henley played baseball at Georgia Tech although not a student at the school.

Henley later took over his father's pharmacy business and eventually sold spring training tickets in his five stores.

His love for baseball inspired him to convince the City of Lakeland to purchase 70 acres of land from Dr. Pike Adair. Adair Park was the site of Athletic Field, a neighborhood pool and a football stadium. The stadium exists today as Bryant Stadium, the home of Lakeland High School football.

Having recruited the area's first professional baseball team - the Louisville Colonels - to Lakeland in 1915, Henley started his own pro team - the Lakeland Highlanders - to compete in newly formed Florida State League. In seven seasons, Henley's teams captured three pennants and finished in the top three six teams. Ten of his players advanced to play in the Major Leagues.

Henley died in 1955 at the age of 69.

HENLEY FIELD IMPROVEMENTS

Originally Athletic Field was an open park. In 1927 a wall was erected to enclose the park. Original dimensions would have had dead center at over 500-feet.

In 1940 a press box was added to the top of the grandstands, but was destroyed by a hurricane in 1945. A 24-foot press box was erected in 1946 and remained until it was declared unsafe in 1985.

Originally, the dugouts were built as part of the main grandstands, but current dugouts were constructed for safety reasons and the old dugouts filled in.

The Detroit Tigers trained at Henley Field from 1934 until 1966 when the club moved to Joker Marchant Stadium. In 2002, the Tigers Class-A affiliate in the Florida State League used Henley Field while Joker Marchant Stadium underwent a renovation. The $250,000 upgrade to Henley Field brought metal stands and bleachers to replace the original wooden seats. New lights were added along with an enhanced fan area behind the third base dugouts. In 2010, a new scoreboard was erected at the stadium. The Jenkins Club House (funded by David Jenkins), complete with coaches' offices, locker room, showers, training room, laundry, and batting cages, opened in 2013.

The Flying Tiger used the stadium once again in 2016 as Joker Marchant Stadium underwent a $43 million renovation.

Florida Southern purchased the stadium from the City of Lakeland in Sept. of 2016.

0n March 22, 2019, the complex was rededicated as the John Rodda Stadium at Henley Field in honor of long-time FSC Trustee and former Moccasin assistant coach. The entire complex was named the David Jenkins Baseball Complex at the same time.

Fans packed Henley Field to watch the Detroit Tigers in a Spring Training Game in this 1962 photograph.
